VERSE 1

A world in need of love and grace
So lost, some cannot find their place
A cry for help, looking for peace
Help them find the rest they seek

CHORUS

Be my hands with arms wide open
Be my feet and stand by their side
Be my eyes so they will see
The sum of you will bring them to me

VERSE 2

My constant strength will be your guide
Where two or three are, so am I
Together called to lift the weight
No need to fear a burden too great

BRIDGE

Bring them love, bring them peace
Bring them life to never cease
Bring them love, bring them care
Bring them from what they can't bear
Bring them love, bring them pow'r
Bring them from their darkest hour
Bring them love, bring them sight
Bring them light to break their night
Bring them love, bring them hope
Bring them just what they need most
Bring them love, bring them joy
Bring them back what was destroyed
Bring them love, bring them Me
Bring them news to set them free
Bring them love, bring them love
Bring them love

TAG

The sum of you will bring them to me
