VERSE 1

Your goodness breathed
Life into all
Yet we fall toward the pleasures
That lull us to sleep
We turn from
Our dull apathy
And run toward the throne
To find help in our need

CHORUS 1

Humbled at your sight
Still we turn our eyes
Away from your face
Lord keep our hearts
From sin
And turn them now
To the mercy you've poured out for us

VERSE 2

Your justice brings
Evil to bay
Yet we fail to give glory
Where glory is due
We turn from
Our boasting and pride
And run toward the cross
Where our good Jesus died

VERSE 3

Your beauty gives
Meaning to life
Yet we find satisfaction
In meaningless thrills
We turn from
Our lustful pursuits
And run toward our Father
His pleasure we choose

CHORUS 2

Humbled at your sight
Still we turn our eyes
Away from your face
Lord keep our hearts
From sin
And turn them now
To the mercy you've poured out
We're humbled at your sight

Still we turn our eyes
Away from your face
Lord keep our hearts from sin
And turn them now

CHORUS 3

Humbled at your sight
So we fix our eyes
To stare at your face
You've washed our hearts
From sin
So turn them now
To the joy that is waiting for us
